DEMOCRATIC ORATORY

AT McKINNEY

Henry Breckinridge and Oscar Letcher to Speak On Monday Night, Oct. 21.

A treat is in store for the people of McKinney and vicinity on next Monday night, Oct. 21. Hon. Henry Breckinridge, of Lexington, a nephew of the late W. C. Breckinridge, who for years represented the Ashland District in Congress, and who like his uncle, is a captivating speaker, will, with Hon. Oscar Letcher, of Henderson, elector on the Wilson ticket for the Second Congressional district, address the voters of McKinney and vicinity on next Monday night at 7 o'clock, in the interest of the democratic ticket.

Mr. Breckinridge is a graduate of Princeton, having finished the course there while Woodrow Wilson was at the head of that famous institution of learning and was the first democrat in Kentucky to espouse the cause of the democratic presidential nominee Mr. Letcher is one of the most influential citizens, and promising young lawyers of Henderson, and is a speaker of known ability. Every voter in West and South End of the county should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear these orators as it is not often such excellent ones are sent our way. Remember the date, Monday night, Oct. 21, at 7 o'clock.

Vanhook Wins Suit.

Judge Bailey's court was occupied all of Wednesday afternoon with case of Federal Chemical Co. of Louisville, against J. N. Vanhook, of the Southern end of the county. Vanhook had bought a quantity of fertilizer of the company and executed his note for $18 for it. He claimed that the material injured rather than helped his land and not only resisted payment of the note, but sued the company for $100, which amount he claimed to have been damaged. About 30 witnesses were introduced and the case was contested with considerable spirit. K. S. Alcorn represented Vanhook and J. B. Paxton the Chemical Co. The jury, after deliberating some time brought in a verdict for Vanhook, giving him $18 which was the amount of the note held by the company against him. The verdict of course throws the costs on the company.

Lincoln Girl's Husband a Winner

Before starting on her long trip to their western home, Mrs. C. C. Leete, of Davenport, Washington, received a telegram from her husband that he had just won the democratic nomination for County Auditor, a position similar to County Clerk here. Mrs. Leete, before her marriage, was Miss Margaret Livingston, daughter of Rev. Jasper Livingston, of this county. Her husband had been deputy county auditor of Lincoln county, Washington, for several terms. He had several opponents for the nomination but had made such a capable official and was so popular, he had no trouble in winning. It is not believed he will have much trouble in defeating his republican opponent in November.

Pie Supper at Neal's Creek.

The ladies of the Neal's Creek church will have a pie supper on Saturday night, the 9th, in order to complete the fund they are raising to purchase a bell for the church. They secured about $5 or half the amount necessary at the box supper last Saturday night, and believe that they can secure the remainder at the pie supper, which is a very popular form of entertainment and always attended by all of the belles and beaux in the neighborhood. All of the boys are urged to come out with their pocket books full of money to buy the pies which the many pretty girls will have for sale.

OVER 1,000 NAMES

On Petition From Lincoln Asking Pardon for Walter Carson

Over a thousand signatures have been obtained in Lincoln county to a petition to Gov. McCreary asking him to pardon Walter Carson, the Hustonsville boy, who was convicted in the Casey county circuit court of shooting a man by the name of Ed Cochran, to death. Carson was sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary, but has not yet been taken to Frankfort, being held at the jail in Liberty until his case is finally acted on. His brother, Fred Carson, had no trouble in securing many new signers to the petition here Monday, for it seems to be generally felt by his friends and those who have acquainted themselves with the facts in the unfortunate case that young Carson had great provocation for his deed, and that nearly every ordinary man placed in a similar situation, would have done as he did. The case will be brought to the attention of the governor at an early date. Petitions have also been extensively circulated in Casey county, where Carson is well known, having carried the rural free delivery route out of Hustonsville and down into Casey for quite a while before he became involved in this trouble. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Carson, of Hustonsville, formerly of Stanford, where they have many friends.

Building a New Warehouse

J. H. Baughman and Company have begun the construction of a large warehouse on their lot fronting the railroad, to replace the building destroyed by fire a year ago. This warehouse will be built entirely of concrete and will be made as near fireproof as possible. Owing to the construction of the driveway at the rear of the depot, the long switch for the mill, had to be removed, so a concrete retaining wall has been built to hold a switching track at an angle in front of the warehouse. Phillips Bros., have the contract for the concrete work.

Speaks at Lexington.

Congressman Harvey Helm has accepted an invitation to speak at Lexington at a big Democratic rally tomorrow, Saturday night Oct. 19. The democracy of the State is beginning to recognize in the Tall Sycamore qualities which always commend themselves to the masses of people. His audience tomorrow night will be amply repaid by the address which we know Mr. Helm is capable of making.

H. C. Bright Says I. J. Reaches More People Than Any Other Paper

"I find that the Interior Journal covers so much territory, and we can reach so many growers through its columns that no other one paper gets to, that we are here to buy a regular space in your paper during the season," said Mr. H. C. Bright, of the Danville Tobacco Warehouse Company, to a representative of the paper Monday. Mr. Bright is preparing for a big season at his popular house, and knows how to reach the most tobacco growers and farmers with the least expenditure. His plant has been enlarged and improved and he says that he will have the best auctioneer in the business with him as soon as the buying season begins. A great many Lincoln county growers have sold with him every year and have always been given the best and fairest of treatment. He will undoubtedly get a large share of the weed grown in this part of the state this season.

Mr. Bright's estimate of the wide circulation of the I. J. was, of course, eminently correct. An advertiser can cover five counties thoroughly with one advertisement in this paper.

To Head Young Mens' Work for Wilson.

K. S. Alcorn has been appointed chairman for Lincoln county of the Young Mens' Bureau which is pushing work among the young men of the state for Woodrow Wilson. He will name precinct committeemen in every precinct in the county to rally the young democratic voters, and see that all get to the polls on election day.

Senator Hubble Buys an Auto

Senator R. L. Hubble, has joined the rapidly growing colony of auto owners in Lincoln county. He purchased last week a six passenger Oldsmobile touring car. It is the handsomest machine in the county and is said to have cost around $3,000. At the rate which our people are buying automobiles, it will not be very long until they are as numerous as the old family horse.

TINDER-ROBINSON

Beautiful Wedding Soemnized at Lancaster This Week

Lancaster, Ky., Oct. 17.—An unusually society event of the week was the marriage on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Christian church of Miss Frances Crenshaw Tinder and Benjamin F. Robinson of this city. The church which was prettily decorated with a background of green added much to the affair. The four ushers Messrs. Curry Robinson, Joe F. Price, H. Clay Kauffman and J. P. Oustahaized, of Lexington, first entered the aisles of the church. The maid of honor, Miss Delia Tinder and the groom's brother and best man, Curry Robinson followed; then the bride's maid, Miss Sue Shelby Mason and Mr. J. P. Oustahaized, then the bride and groom, who were joined at the altar by the bride's father, Elder F. M. Tinder in well and chosen impressive words sealed the marriage vows with the golden circle of the marriage ring.

Before the bridal party a well selected musical program was rendered. Miss Letty May McRoberts playing the accompaniment for the popular tenor singer, Mr. John M. Farra, who pleasantly sang "Oh Promise Me," and "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold."

Miss McRoberts pleased the large audience with the following select instrumental solos "Nevins Evening Star," the "Barcorall" and "Call Me Thine Own."

The bride was strikingly pretty in a handsome gown of charmesse and a pearl Juliet cap and carried a veil, brides roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor Miss Delia Tinder was in a handsome embroidered white over blue silk with becoming blue accessories, while the bride's maid, Miss Sue Shelby Mason wore cream over yellow satin carrying a large bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

The happy and popular young people whose friends are legion left at once for an extended bridal trip east.

The long continued drought in Garrard is becoming deplorable.

A Boy Scout association has been organized in the community with about 21 members.

Mrs. Fred P. Frisbie entertained the Chautauqua Circle Wednesday afternoon.

R. L. Elkin and John M. Farra are at home from an annual fishing trip near Rockcastle Springs.

Arts and Crafts Missionary Society met Wednesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, and served a salad course.

Rev. Joseph Hopper, of Perryville will begin a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Messrs. Wm. and Samuel Denny will have a sale of first class stock at their home near Point Leavell on Friday, Oct. 24th. See details in their big adv. in other columns.

The following Lancastrians were in Louisville this week for the National Sunday School and C. W. B. M. conventions, Rev. F. M. Tinder, Messdames J. B. Kinnaird, Emma Higginbotham, W. T. West, J. R. Raney, R. T. Embury, Wm. Burnett, Misses Addie and Corine Arnold and Sallie Elkin.

Mr. Thompson and sister, Miss Jean Thompson, of Mt. Hebron, are both ill of typhoid fever. They are under the care of a trained nurse from Lexington.

The recent bride, Mrs. B. F. Robinson, entertained the bridal party at her home on Stanford street. On Monday evening the Misses Gill gave a reception in honor of the bride-elect.

WIN AT TWO FAIRS

Harris & Woods' Great Show Mules Without Peers on Fair Circuit

Bob Woods has returned from Bowling Green and Glasgow, where he exhibited the great herd of show mules owned by himself in partnership with his uncle, Col. Sam T. Harris. At both fairs the Lincoln county string of hybrids swept all before them, and again demonstrated the fact that there is probably no superior herd of show mules in the south today.

At Bowling Green, Mr. Woods showed in eight rings, and came out with seven blue ribbons and three reds. There were 14 mare mules in the sweepstake ring, and he won the first ribbon in this event with a three-year-old mule.

At Glasgow he made shows in 10 rings and came away with 10 blues, seven reds and three thirds.

These great mules will not be shown further this season, having demonstrated without doubt that they have no equals on the Kentucky fair circuit.

IN FEARFUL SHAPE

Are Pikes in This Part of the County—Dust Many Inches Deep.

Complaint is heard on all sides of the fearful condition of the roads in the Stanford magisterial district since the dirt from the side of the roads has been scraped into the center. The Danville and Hustonsville pikes, for instance are several inches thick in dust right now, and as soon as rain comes will be just that deep in mud. Men who understand the theory of road building say that it is the correct thing to scrape the sides so that the center shall be higher, and a proper drain obtained, but that when the road has been shaped, it should be covered with metal. This has not been done and in consequence, the roads in this part of the county are in worse shape than they have been for years.

GIRL SENT TO JAIL

In Mercer When She would Not Tell Of Her Father's Crime.

Harrodsburg, Ky., Oct. 17.—A sensation was created yesterday afternoon when Miss Lizzie Devine, of the Rose Hill section, flatly refused to talk when taken before the grand jury to testify in the case of the Commonwealth against her father, Thomas Devine, who is charged with incest. Miss Devine's sister was then called and she sat silent as an Egyptian mummy. Miss Lizzie Devine was promptly sent to jail by Judge Hardin who does not believe in any foolishness when it comes to enforcing the law. She still refused to talk but it is thought that a short confinement will have the desired effect. Devine himself is at least fifty years old and when taken into court the other day appeared to be a raving lunatic and it took three men to hold him. It is generally believed that he is playing crazy, although some think that the awful remorse occasioned by reflection upon his crime has unbalanced him. This is the only case of importance to be tried at the October term of the Mercer circuit court. Devine's wife is living and when the charge of incest was preferred against him in connection with two young daughters, who now refuse to talk, public sentiment was deeply stirred in the Rose Hill section of the county. The writer finds that Judge Hardin, by his promptness in having the law executed is making a fine reputation in his home county of Mercer. He is deservedly one of the most popular judges who has ever served in the Thirteenth Judicial district.

FARM AND STOCK NEWS

S. L. Stephenson bought of A. J. Gooch 2 mule colts at $100.

Walter McKinney, of Mt. Salem, dug from one hill 137 potatoes. They ranged from the size of a thimble to the size of a man's fist.

Bob Moreland, of Lexington, formerly of Stanford, sold the crack show gelding Nickle Plate to W. A. McGibbon, of Harrison, N. Y. He will be shown in the three-gaited classes at the principal shows in the East, with a long tail. The gray gelding, which was the big sensation of the Kentucky fairs this season, and the biggest winner of the year, was never in better condition than at present. In response to the question as to price, Mr. Moreland stated that one was safe in saying that the price was the largest ever paid for a saddle gelding.

Senator R. L. Hubble, of Lincoln county, is here to see his good horse T. M. Green, start in the stake race at Churchill Downs today. The Senator is doubtful of the horse's ability to win the race with such fast company attending him, so this is a hunch for everybody to get down on T. M. Green. When the Senator fancies him Green is an also ran, but when the Senator is doubtful, Green delivers the goods.—Louisville Herald.

One of the biggest cattle sales that has taken place in Kentucky so far this year, if not the best, was that of President Clarence LeBus of the Burley Tobacco Society, Friday, when he sold to Campbell & Lamaster, of Lexington extensive cattle buyers and judges of fine stock, 78 head of prime fat steers at 10 cents and a few at 9 cts. The cattle averaged 1,552 pounds each, were in the best of condition and had been the admiration for some time of all who saw them. The herd sold is said to have been one of the best in this part of Kentucky. Mr. LeBus fattened the stock on his beautiful Blue Grass farm, five miles from Lexington, on the Russell Cave, pike.

James Allen, of Hustonville, disposed of 6 good cattle Monday at 5 to 5 1-2 cents.

Dr. Hugh Reid, a mile out on the Danville pike, bought seven yearling steers to feed at $20 average at the stock yards Monday.

F. F. Fitzpatrick, the well known young Hedgeville mule buyer, paid G. B. Sutton, of the Preachersville section $135 for a five-year-old horse mule Monday.

Lee Rankin, of Hubble, sold to Brown and Lawson, the Garrard stockmen a bunch of nine 225-pound porkers at 7 1-2 cents a pound. The same buyers got five from L. P. Weaver, of the same section of Lincoln, at 7 1-2 cents, and they were to a 240-pound average. Haven McBeath delivered to these buyers a fat cow for $33.

J. H. Woods bought from Thurlow Jones Monday a bunch of 10 650-pound feeders at $5.25.

Joe Robinson, of Garrard county, bought a couple of good mule colts at $65 and $90.

Are the Fly and Mosquito Dangerous?

The fly, with spongy feet, collects the invisible germs of diseases, spreads them over our food and poisons us with typhoid and cholera. The mosquito with its bite injects into our veins malaria and yellow fever. The bacteria of consumption, or grip, are everywhere present for us to breathe into our lungs. The blood which flows through our veins and arteries is our protection. It should contain healthy red and white blood corpuscles—capable of warding off these disease germs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood medicine and alterative made entirely without alcohol, a pure glyceric extract of bloodroot, golden seal, Oregon grape root, queen's root, mandrake and stone root, which has enjoyed a good reputation for over forty years. The refreshing influence of this extract is like Nature's influence—the blood is bathed in the tonic which gives life to the blood—the vital fires of the body burn brighter and their increased activity consumes the tissue rubbish which has accumulated during the winter.

M. MAGUIRE, ESQ.

"About forty years ago while in Newark, New Jersey, I had chills and fever," writes Mr. MICHAEL MAGUIRE, of National Military Home, Kansas. "I went to Kansas City and in the spring of 1877 the chills and fever returned. Doctors and everything I tried failed to do me good. Finally I saw Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery advertised. I took one bottle of it and the chills vanished. In about a year afterward I felt them coming back so I got another bottle and have never had any symptoms of fever or ague since. That is all of twenty years ago, for I had the chills about twelve years before I started to take Golden Medical Discovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for liver ills.

A Severe Sickness Leaves

The Kidneys Weak

After recovering from a severe spell of sickness some time ago, I was all run down and suffering from poor blood. I would have pains in my back and hips and my kidneys bothered me all the time I started taking Swamp-Root upon the recommendation of a friend and found it was just what I needed. My blood became all right and after taking a few bottles, I was surprised at the effect it had on my kidneys. They were entirely cured and I have much to be thankful for that your great remedy did for me.

Yours very truly

The Deadlock

"She seems so little to be sent to school," said Mrs. Richmond, looking yearningly at her diminutive daughter, who was seated in a corner of the living room, disciplining, with great earnestness and sternness, her large family of dolls.

"I wouldn't send her, then," said Richmond, easily. "What difference does it make whether she goes this year or not?"

"Well, I don't want her to be behind the children of her own age," said Mrs. Richmond, hesitatingly. "But she's such a tiny thing! I feel as if it would be deliberately giving my baby over to the hands of the destroyer."

"You might teach her at home," ventured Richmond.

His wife's face brightened. "So I might," she returned, "and I do believe I will." Then she looked dubious for a moment. "But I don't know what to teach her."

"Teach her her letters," said Richmond. "That was good enough for you and me, and I've heard lots of people complain that their children didn't know the alphabet."

"I believe I'll try," said Mrs. Richmond.

Accordingly the next morning she cornered her ewe lamb in the nursery.

"Now, Frances, darling," she said, with the carefully assumed veneer of buoyancy in which she had seen kindergartners and other guardians of the infant intelligence envelop themselves as with a garment, "you and I are going to have a dear little school right here in the nursery."

"I would rather," remarked the prospective pupil reflectively, "have a big apple and a piece of candy."

"Well, may be we'll have those, too," agreed the embryonic instructress, "but not until after we've had our lesson."

"What's a lesson?" inquired the pupil.

"It's—let's see. It's to teach you your letters, so you can read lovely stories out of books."

Frances pondered this for a moment. "But I'd rather have you read them to me," said said, after proper reflection.

"But you can't always have me to do that, dear," said Mrs. Richmond firmly. She drew Frances into her lap and opened the book with which she had decided to begin the fray. "All the little girls learn to read and mother would be terribly ashamed if her little girl didn't. Now, look at this funny letter with the two legs and the piece across the middle like a queer little ladder. What do you think that letter is?"

"I never saw it before," said Frances, "so I guess I don't care about its name."

"Well, that letter is named A," said Mrs. Richmond. "Now, here's one with two funny little fat balloons stuck on a stick. The name of that one is B."

"Is it?" Frances inquired with perfunctory politeness. "I guess I don't like to read very well," she explained courteously, as she made a tentative effort to get down from her mother's lap.

"But you'll have to learn, dearie," said Mrs. Richmond patiently. "Now, tell mother what this letter with the two legs is."

Frances put a fat forefinger on the letter.

"We'll call that B," she said sweetly. "Now, can I go, mummy?"

"No, lambkin," said her mother firmly. "That's A. See how funny it looks with the two slanting legs and the little piece between them. Now, what's its name?"

Frances heaved a deep sigh. "I guess we'll call it B," she said, with gentle firmness.

"But it's A, precious," insisted her mother.

"Is it?" inquired Frances. "I think I'll call it B."

"Now, Frances," said her mother sternly, "you know that letter is A, and you must say it."

There was no reply. Frances was observing a sparrow shaking itself on the window ledge.

"Frances," her mother said, "tell mother what that letter is."

"Oh, mother," Frances cried joyously, "did you see that sparrow picking his tooth with its feather?"

Mrs. Richmond set her small daughter down on the floor. "Now, Frances," she said, "tell me the name of that letter or I'll put you to bed."

Frances looked up at the ceiling and crossed her fat hands on her little stomach. "We'll call it B," she said finally.

Half an hour later Mrs. Richmond went into Frances' little room. A sweetly smiling face looked up at her from the bed.

"Baby," she pleaded, "please do as mother wants you to. Mother hates to punish her baby. Tell me the right name of this letter."

She drew out the book and laid her finger on the much discussed letter. There was a breathless pause.

"Well, mummy," said a bored voice deliberately, "may it be an A for you, but I guess I'll call it B."

"I think I'll have to send Frances to school after all," admitted Mrs. Richmond to Frances' father that evening after dinner. "I'm afraid my method of imparting instruction is not sufficiently modern."

Whole Family Benefited By Wonderful Remedy

There are many little things to annoy us, under present conditions of life. The hurry, hard work, noise and strain all tell on us and tend to provoke nervousness and irritability. We are frequently so worn out we can neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort. We are out of line with ourselves and others as well.

A good thing to do under such circumstances is to take something like to relieve the strain on the nerves. Mrs. J. B. Hartsfield, 33 Corput St., Atlanta Ga., writes:

"I have on several occasions been vastly relieved by the use of your medicines, especially the Anti-Pain Pills, which I keep constantly on hand for the use of myself, husband and two sons. Nothing in the world equals them as a headache remedy. Often I am enabled by the use of one or two of the Pills to continue my housework when otherwise I would be in bed. My husband joins me in my praise of the Anti-Pain Pills and Nervine."

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

are relied upon to relieve pain, nervousness and irritability in thousands of households. Of proven merit after twenty years' use, you can have no reason for being longer without them.

At all Druggists, 25 doses 25 cents. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

LATE MORGAN

William C. Long,

The hard times of the last national democratic administration when Cleveland was president, is being played up and utilized by the present standpat republicans for all that it is worth. The opponents of Woodrow Wilson are trying to use the hard times of 1893-4-5 as an argument against Wilson and a democratic victory. The Taft followers make the mistake of calling the democratic party a free-trade-party and a tariff-for-revenue only party. The unprogressive republicans seem to think that Wilson and democratic party intend to carry the country straight to free-trade or to a revenue tariff basis in the case of democratic success.

Such is not the case. Woodrow Wilson, Oscar Underwood and Champ Clark, time and time again, have discussed the tariff question and have said very clearly that all that the democrats propose to do is to set to work to carefully and cautiously begin a downward revision of the tariff. Some months ago Mr. Underwood contributed an article to the Outlook, in which he clearly defined his views on the tariff. Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson also contributed articles to the same magazine. We wish the honest Taft republicans of this section could get hold of these articles and see for themselves what the democrats expect to do. All three agree in a general way that free-trade is out of the question. They take the view that a tariff for revenue is a fundamental doctrine of the democratic party, but that it will require many years to get around to it.

The hard times of the Cleveland administration cannot be brought up as an argument against the democratic party. There were three contributing causes to the panic and hard times that caused so much distress in Cleveland's second administration:

1.—There was a worldwide fall in prices, due to various economic and industrial changes. This fall in prices covered a period of twenty or twenty-five years. The business depression in 1893 was not confined to the United States—it was worldwide.

2.—The greatest cause of the financial depression was due to an uncertainty and scare in the financial world brought about by the discussion between the gold-standard people and the free-silver people.

3.—The revision of the tariff at this critical, sensitive time doubtless accentuated the depression and made the times harder. But we do not think that it is just and fair to speak of the democratic tariff in Cleveland's time as the primary cause of the depression.

The scoundrel who sought to kill President Roosevelt ought to be hanged as high as Haman. But, like most big criminals he was too foxy. Wisconsin has a law against capital punishment. Happily the big Bull Moose is rapidly improving.

Forty Thousand Already Pledged

The Wilson National Progressive League, headed by Rudolph Speckles the wealthy San Francisco reformer has secured the pledges of forty thousand Republicans to support Governor Wilson. These men are deeply disappointed that the Republican Convention did not name a progressive, but they declined to follow Roosevelt out of the party as they had no sympathy with the third term movement. The League is officered by such men as Dr. Wiley, the former government pure food man, Senator Blaine, the law partner of LaFollette, and others fully as prominent in Republican party.

Very, Very Innocent

Col. Roosevelt testified before the Senate Investigating Committee that he was not personally aware of any specific contribution to his campaign fund and that he made no promises or concessions to anyone. If all those who believe that statement were required to stand on their heads the number would not occasion any special comment. Everybody knows that the interests are not in the habit of throwing money to the birds. They would not have given millions without some promise of protection. They are too well versed in business to make a bad investment of so much money.

President Taft, who was wont to be called "Smiling Bill" is a sanguine old soul, that is to say he tries to look on the bright side of things. He has just given out an interview that he has no doubt of his election, that Roosevelt is being fast eliminated, and that his contest will be entirely with Wilson. Evidently the fat man in the White House, like the fellow who goes through the grave yard at night, is whistling to keep his courage up.

The chairman of the Speakers Bureau, Hon. H. V. McChesney, is a very busy man, arranging dates for the speakers. There will be speaking at most all of the county seats Monday with whirl-wind finish there after until election.

Secretary W. O. Davis, of the Democratic Campaign Committee, urges that all precinct chairmen who have not sent in to Democratic Headquarters at Louisville their committeemen with their post office addresses will please do so at once. The time is getting short now and he must have this information.

With so-called Progressive candidates to divide the Republican vote in the Tenth and Eleventh Districts, their appears a real chance to elect a solid Democratic Congressional delegation from Kentucky. Such a consummation should put every Democrat on his mettle and make him bend every effort to that end. Kentucky must do her part in electing a Congress that will uphold the Democratic administration at Washington which now seems assured.

When You're Tempted to Buy from a Picture

Remember the times when, comparing the original of a photograph with the photograph itself, you've had a sense of disappointment.

A clever artist or photographer can almost turn a cactus plant into a rose bush. That's why so many "worth $50.00 Suits" in a catalog look like $15.00 when you see the suit itself.

The best way to buy is to see the goods for themselves. To test for fabric, fit and finish, before you pass along your money.

This store does not appeal for your patronage on the basis of local pride, But on our ability to serve. Come and let us show you our stocks. You'll find it better and more satisfactory than buying from pictures.

Tonic—Alterative

What is a "tonic"? A medicine that increases the strength or the tone of the whole system. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Name the best "tonic and alterative"? Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor about it.

Bilious attacks, sick-headaches, indigestion, constipation, dizzy spells—these are some of the results of an inactive liver. Ask your doctor if he endorses Ayer's Pills in these cases. The dose is small, one pill at bedtime.

Beckham for Senator

Speaking of possible candidates nation next year, the Elizabethtown for the Democratic senatorial nomination, said of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham:

Nobody has any authority to say that Ex-Governor Beckham will be a candidate, yet it seems to be generally understood that he will be. Mr. Beckham made a fine governor in administering the affairs of the State. He built the magnificent new capitol during his second term and left the State treasury in splendid condition when he retired. Another strong thing in his favor is that he was robbed out of the election by the basest sort of party betrayal when four men elected as Democrats voted for W. O. Bradley. His claim is very much like that of Tilden who was robbed out of the presidency. The ex-Governor has great ability. This has been tested and proven so often conceded it. He has warm friends in all parts of the State and bitter enemies. His active work for the County Unit law made him many friends and if he enters the race he will have to fight the liquor interest which has always been against him since he took the stand he did, but the man who beats Beckham will get the Democratic nomination.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Hean of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Interior Journal readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit?

John H. Wren, E. Main Street, Stanford, Ky., says: "I know from experience that Doan's Kidney Pills are all that is claimed for them. Off and on for several years I had severe attacks of lame back. Often I did work that required stooping and at such times the backache became much worse. There was also a too frequent desire to void the kidney secretions both day and night. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me and have never failed to benefit me since then when I have taken them."

Wilson Stands For a Principle—Will You Stand By Him?

Woodrow Wilson is a vastly different order of man than you find among the ranks of many good men in practical political life.

Woodrow Wilson is not among the great majority of politicians and business men, otherwise estimable characters, who believe that the end justifies the means, who are honest in a commercial or political sense.

The candidate of the progressive voters of the country not only does not believe in the doctrine of "anything to win," but he insists on plain old fashioned honesty in every detail of his campaign.

Woodrow Wilson proposes to win on the merits of his candidacy and platform or not at all. Clean hands or no fight" is Wilson's ultimatum to his supporters throughout the country.

No Tainted Money For Wilson

Not a dollar of questionable money will be spent to elect Woodrow Wilson.

The Democratic National Committee is heart and soul in accord with the candidate's views.

And the corrupting influences, with no political faith, casting about to win a foothold in the new government with bribes of ill-gotten gains, have despaired of reaching Wilson or his campaigners.

They have gone to the enemy, whoever that enemy may be, matter of common knowledge that the "Interests" are using all their political funds to defeat Wilson.

This makes it your fight.

What the American People Need to Know

The people have constantly made the mistake of believing that this is a money-ridden nation.

Such is only the case insofar as the People fail to get together and so permit the few to control the dishonest representatives they, by mistake, elect to office.

The actual money power of the People is still greater than that of the Interests.

The Progressive People of the country, if they get together, can buy and sell the Corrupting Influences and destroy their financial power.

So Woodrow Wilson and his managers believe that not only is it the only clean method but the most practical method for the Progressive People of the country to supply the Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund.

The People to Fight With THEIR Dollars

This year a popular president is to be elected with the People's money.

The Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund is to be collected from the rank and file of the Progressive Voters of the country.

The bills of the Democratic National Committee are to be paid, not with the thousands of the Interests, but with the individual dollars of the earnest, eager voters who desire clean, efficient government and who are willing to help Wilson as he wants to be helped.

Money thus needed is not spent in improper ways or in any manner similar to the way in which the funds of the Interests are disbursed.

But we have to tell the voters of the country about Woodrow Wilson. We have to tell them what he has done. We have to tell them what he stands for. We have to point out to them the important planks in his platform. All this means that to hold up our end we will be obliged to spend as much money as those who oppose us.

This means that every man or woman who believes in Wilson should be willing to contribute to his cause.

Let the supporters of Wilson help us to spread the Wilson gospel to the four winds.

Let the Progressive Voters battle this year with their pocketbooks as well as their ballots.

We Solicit Popular Subscriptions—Can You Give From $1 to $20?

Of course, you can—and you are glad to support the cause in this way.

Practically every voter can afford to give $1 to aid the Wilson Campaign. A great many can give $2. A great many can give $5. And there are lots and lots of progressive voters who will be eager to donate from $10 to $20.

These are the kind of contributions we want.

And we will be proud to receive from thousands, who can only afford $1, their $1 contributions. We want to hear from every man who has a dollar to give.

This year the man with the dollar must defeat the government traducer who spends his thousands.

Get Club Subscriptions

If you know many Wilson men, if you work among many Wilson men, head a list with your name and money and get the others to join you with their subscriptions.

Then send your list with the money to C. R. Crane, Vice Chairman, Finance Committee, Democratic National Committee, 900 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

No loyal Wilson man can do more than this to assure Wilson's victory at the polls in November.

How to Contribute to the Wilson Campaign Fund

Sign the Coupon opposite and fill in the amount you give. Then attach your money to this Coupon and mail today to the address given on the Coupon.

Issue all checks, money orders and address all contributions to C. R. Crane, Vice Chairman, Finance Committee, Democratic National Committee, 900 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Then write a letter to this paper giving your name as a contributor and stating your reasons why you believe Woodrow Wilson should be elected President of the United States. In this way you will be listed as a Wilson contributor. A Souvenir Receipt, handily inscribed, will be sent to you. Your letter will help in the fight by encouraging your friends.

Do everything you can to hold up Wilson's hands in his clean campaign for the people who do the work and fighting of the country.

Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund LOYALTY COUPON

To C. R. CRANE, Vice Chairman, Finance Committee, The Democratic National Committee, 900 Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

As a believer in the progressive ideals of government represented in the candidacy of Woodrow Wilson for President of the United States, and to the end that he may take the office free-handed, untrammeled, and obligated to none but the people of the country, I wish to contribute through you the sum of $..... toward the expense of Gov. Wilson's campaign.
